Local sculptor Alistair Green from the 'Vancouver Island Society of Disabled Artists' has generously donated one of his pieces, appraised at $2400, as the Grand Prize in the Art 4 All to See fundraiser.

Victoria Mayor Dean Fortin will make the Grand Prize draw!

This unique sculpture, now on display at the VDRC, is a 3-dimensional medium which can be enjoyed by all, including those who are blind or have low vision.

Additional prizes include:

- Gift Certificates to Ric's Grill, courtesy of 98.5 THE OCEAN
- A Fashionable and Exquisite JACK-FM Travel Bag
- Gift Certificates from Seaside Hypnosis Center
- Goodies from Want a Cookie?
- Movie Passes to the National Geographic IMAX Theatre and more!

All ticket sales from this endeavour will support the purchase of new, accessible computer equipment - replacing that which was damaged and stolen from the VDRC's computer lab in 2008.

Tickets are now available, by donation, Monday-thru-Friday between 9am and 4pm at the Victoria Disability Resource Centre, 817 A Fort Street.
